

10th Grade Summer Reading Books

Students must read the following two books:

Book #1 - *Lord of the Flies by William Golding. School age boys survive a plane crash on a remote tropical island during WW II and set up their own society.

Book #2- *Of Mice and Men by John Steinbeck. What should one do when someone close is suffering? . . . and the suffering doesn't appear to have an end? A controversial story from early 20th century America of two wandering men with special situations, desperately seeking work and housing . . . a thinker. (Contains sensitive material.)

Expectations and format for book one: Write a typed response for your required reading selection that responds to the questions below. Use the following requirements:

- Font size - 12 point
- Times New Roman
- Show clear understanding of the assignment and the text.
- Show thoroughness and depth of analysis (details and examples but not plot summary).
- Edit carefully for effective use of punctuation, spelling, capitalization, sentence structure, and usage.
- Revise for clear and accurate ideas.
- Staple student and parent signature document to front of final printed project.
- Maximum length of written response: two pages

NOTE: Your typed response is due the FIRST day of English class.

Ten points will be deducted per day late.

Directions: For book one, answer the following questions. Please number each answer.

1. Give the title and author of the book and the date you finished reading it. (5 points)
2. Write out two thoughtful discussion questions you could ask about this book. Be sure your questions show reflection and are not “yes” or “no” questions. (5 points each; 10 pts. total)
3. Write a brief paragraph answering one of your two questions (#2). (10 points)

4. What two brief passages should be revisited? Copy them down, note the page numbers, and explain why you chose them. Noteworthy passages could be provocative, controversial, informative, humorous, sad, ironic, etc. (20 pts. per passage and detailed response; 40 pts. total)
5. Write a paragraph in which you make a detailed and thoughtful connection between this book and another work (movie, play, poem, novel, musical composition, scripture) or real life. (15 points)

Choose 6a or 6b:

- 6b. Choose a theme from the book read and give three or more specific examples of where this theme is seen in the work. (20 points)

Expectations for book two: **Be prepared to take an in-class multiple choice exam after reading this book. To be prepared for this exam, be sure you know the following information about your book. . You may bring a page of handwritten notes to class on the day the exam is taken.

- ☒ Characters
- ☒ Setting: the time and place
- ☒ Context: the important outside events occurring around the characters that influence the ideas in a literary work (i.e: a war, a government change, racial discrimination, a financial crisis, etc.)
- ☒ Plot: the events in a literary work and their sequence
- ☒ Themes: a major overarching or underlying idea in a literary work; an idea that an author repeats, revealing it as significant for readers to consider (ex: love, friendship, bitterness, hatred, despair, suffering, marriage, hope, death, faith, etc.)
- ☒ Motifs: an image, sound, action, idea or figure that repeats. It has symbolic significance and contributes toward a theme. Though similar to theme, it is not a central idea in a story; instead, it develops or explains a theme
- ☒ Symbols: An object representing another to give it a deeper and more significant meaning that is different from its literal sense. (Sometimes an idea, action, or event can have symbolic value) (ex: a dove could symbolize peace; a rose could symbolize hope or love; a chain could symbolize union or imprisonment, etc.)

Important Reminder: Accessing any information through outside sources, including online material, is strictly prohibited because it defeats the purpose of the assignment. Doing so will result in a zero for a major project grade.
